Advice for worshippers and visitors to St Giles' Cathedral as of 18/3/20

From 17.00 on Tuesday 17th March 2020, St Giles' Cathedral will be closed for visiting. We will remain closed until further notice pending further official advice.

We will be cancelling all group bookings and concerts. There will be no cancellation fees imposed. For ticket holders for concerts, please contact your ticket provider concerning refunds.

The following is from the Minister and Kirk Session of St. Giles' Cathedral.

All worship services at St. Giles' Cathedral, the High Kirk of Edinburgh, have been cancelled until further notice in light of the advice below from the Church of Scotland Task Force on the COVID 19 virus.

The Scottish Government advised that people should minimise social contact by avoiding crowded areas and large gatherings, including religious congregations, and smaller gatherings, listing areas which were of concern.

Worship – Cancellation of Worship Services

In the light of the above, the Church of Scotland Task Group has agreed to ask, in the strongest terms, that all gatherings for worship should cease until further notice, with effect from Tuesday 17th March 2020, or earlier if possible. Other Scottish Churches are taking similar actions. This obviously includes Easter services. Sunday broadcasts of a weekly service take place on Radio 4, and also on Radio Scotland; other radio stations are available.

Thank you for your cooperation and understanding during at this time.

Stay Safe and Best Wishes,

All at St Giles'.
